EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

Professional Conduct ("RPC"), including RPC 1.16. We agree that this agreement will terminate on the date of the issuance of your discharge by the Court.

15. Client Access to File.

During the period that the Attorney represents the Debtor or otherwise providing legal services in connection with the Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, it is agreed that the Attorney shall have sole control over access to documents contained in the file. In the event the Debtor wishes to review the file, such review shall be done in the presence and with the assistance of the Attorney or his staff. The Debtor may remove documents from the file only at the sole discretion of the Attorney. The Attorney agrees to not unreasonably withhold the Debtor's access to the file or provide copies. Debtor further consents to the destruction of any documents left with the Attorney.

16. Advice Between Spouses and Communication with Non-Filing Spouse.

The Debtor acknowledges that the Attorney or other Team Member cannot take sides in any dispute between spouses regarding any matter affecting either or both of them. The Debtors waive any conflict of interest that may arise in regard to such dispute. It is agreed that any information communicated to one spouse by the Attorney or other Team Member shall be deemed communicated to both spouses. If only one spouse files for bankruptcy, then the Debtor gives the Law Firm consent to communicate with and treat the non-filing spouse as if he or she has jointly filed with the Debtor unless informed otherwise in writing.

17. Collection Costs.

In the event the Attorney institutes any action or proceeding against the Debtor to collect unpaid balances due pursuant to this agreement, the Attorney shall be entitled to collect an amount equal to the amount due, all court costs, plus twenty (20%) percent of the outstanding amount as a collection fee, pursuant to First Morris Bank v. Roland Offset Services, 357 N.J. Super. 68 (App. Div. 2003). In no event shall the collection fee be less than $450.00, pursuant to Hrycak v. Kiernan, 367 N.J. Super. 237 (App. Div. 2004). The collection fee shall be imposed upon the Attorney mailing to Debtor the "Pre-action Notice to Client", as required under Rule 1:20A-6 of the Rules Governing the Courts of New Jersey. Interest shall accrue at an annual rate of eighteen (18%) percent, as set forth in Loigman v. Keim, 250 N.J. Super 434 (Law Div. 1991). Interest is calculated daily based on a 360 day year, thirty (30) days after Attorney mails an invoice.

18. No Guarantee.

I agree to provide conscientious, competent and diligent services and at all times will seek to achieve solutions that are just and reasonable for you. However, because of the uncertainty of legal proceedings, the interpretation and changes in the law and many unknown factors, I cannot and do not warrant, predict or guarantee results or the final outcome of any case. My comments about the outcome of your matter are expressions of opinion only.

19. Refund of Percentage of Base Fee.

In the event the legal services provided for herein are terminated by either party prior to the filing of a Chapter 13 bankruptcy case, or if for whatever reason the bankruptcy does not occur, then the Debtor may be entitled to a refund of some of the base fee. The refund shall be determined by the number of hours devoted by the Attorney to the case prior to the time of termination computed at the rate of $300.00 per hour; by the time devoted to the case by the Paralegal or Office Manager computed at the rate of $135.00 per hour; by the time devoted to the case by the bankruptcy preparation preparer computed at the rate of $110.00 per hour; by the time devoted to the case by other staff at the rate of $85.00 per hour; by $100.00 to review the invoice and issue the refund check; by adding all expenses incurred (such as copies, postage, securing records and documents, tax transcripts, credit reports, etc); by adding $100.00 for office supplies and storage costs; and then by deducting the total amount of all charges from the Base Fee. Should the costs incurred exceed the amount received by the Debtor the balance will be due within ten (10) days from the date of invoice. Notwithstanding the above, upon final review with the Attorney, all professional fees are deemed earned and the only refund available to the Debtor is the court filing fee.

Included in the hours devoted is the time during the initial consultation and any subsequent consultation prior to the signing of this retainer agreement.

We may also contact you by sending text messages or e-mails, using any e-mail address you provide to us.

You authorize the Law firm to electronically record all forms of communication.

22. Credit Card Use Prior to Filing for Bankruptcy.

I have been advised that I am to immediately stop using credit cards for any reason within three months prior to filing for bankruptcy. I understand that if I do use my credit cards within this three month period, my case will be red-flagged by the credit card issuer. This is because §523(a)(2)(C) provides that consumer debt owed to a creditor totaling more than $550.00 for "luxury" goods and services may not be discharged if that debt was incurred within 90 days prior to the bankruptcy filing. Cash advances totaling more than $825.00 within 70 days prior to filing are also non-dischargeable in bankruptcy. Even if you have a defense, (i.e., that your purchases were not for "luxury" items but were for food or medical care) you may find yourself in expensive litigation, if the credit card issuer files a non-dischargability complaint.

Contingent Fee Agreement Supplement

The Debtor or Debtors and the Law Office of Jonathan Stone hereby agree that any recovery in any adversary proceeding or contested case that is the subject of a contingency fee shall be resolved as follows:

1. All costs, whether paid by law office or paid by Debtor(s) and statutory or actual damages shall be added together to reach a total settlement amount; any attorney fees awarded shall not be calculated into that total settlement amount but are paid solely to the Law Office of Jonathan Stone.
2. The total settlement amount shall then be divided between the Debtor or Debtors and the Law Office of Jonathan Stone; with the Debtor receiving 60% and the Law Office of Jonathan Stone receiving 40%.
3. All litigation and other related expenses, as paid by the law office, shall then be deducted from the 60% of the total settlement amount assigned to the Debtor if paid by the Law Office of Jonathan Stone;
4. No part of the litigation and other related expenses shall be deducted from the 40% of the total settlement paid to the Debtor or Debtors if paid by the Debtor or Debtors and this percentage shall apply to any amount received by settlement, trial, or appeal;
5. The Debtor or Debtors shall be liable for any litigation and other related expenses incurred in the adversary proceeding or the contested case even if there is no recovery - if those expenses have been paid by the Law Office of Jonathan Stone. All such expenses over $25.00, other than the summons, will be specifically approved in advance in a written document signed by the Debtor or Debtors;
6. The total settlement amount shall be computed without any deduction for the litigation and other related expenses; and attorney fees awarded by the court will be in addition to the percentage fee on other sums recovered.
7. Upon conclusion of the matter, the Law Office of Jonathan Stone shall provide the Debtor or Debtors with a written statement stating the outcome of the matter and if there is a recovery showing the remittance to the client and the method of its determination consistent herewith.
8. The Law Office of Jonathan Stone is granted a lien on the gross recovery for the amount of the contingent fee as fixed by the agreement herein. The said lien shall secure property that is deemed to be the sole property of the Law Office of Jonathan Stone and not property of the debtor or of the debtor's estate in bankruptcy.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $39 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $299)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $274)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $1039)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $239)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.

Many filing deadlines change on December 1, 2009. Of special note, 12 rules that set 15 days to act are amended to require action within 14 days, including Rule 1007(c), filing the initial case papers; Rule 3015(b), filing a chapter 13 plan; Rule 8009(a), filing appellate briefs; and Rules 1019, 1020, 2015, 2015.1, 2016, 4001, 4002, 6004, and 6007.
